" PRESIDENT'S REPORT "

MAY '88

I hope you are all selling huge amounts of raffle tickets for our A.G.M. Special Effort.

Final numbers for the A.G.M. Dinner at the Lone Star Cantina are required this meeting along with your deposit.

Well you asked for it, the Port Puzzler is no more, John has finally had a gutful of putting all that effort in, not to mention the money, for only about five members to participate. Most of you, more than likely, couldn't give a damn, but those who enjoyed a little exercise of the grey matter will miss the challenge, unless of course someone else will take up the challenge. This could also be too much to ask, as we can't get any other contribution for the magazine.

I'll finish by thanking John for his effort which has given some of us a lot of enjoyment, and maybe I could write on and fill the page or I could be just another club member and say, why bother.

DAVE HEARD

RESULTS OF PORT PUZZLER NO. 10

Once again there were not many entries in the Port Puzzler competition. Those that entered did very well, but, as usual in recent months, Ken Beith with 28 correct answers was again the winner. As he is not fond of Port, we will provide him with six bottles of mineral water instead.

TEN WAYS TO KILL A CLUB

As suggested by a Member

1. Don't attend meetings.
2. If you do attend, come late
3. When you attend, sit at the back and talk to the bloke next to you about the weather or cricket.
4. Never accept office. It's much easier to criticize than do something.
5. If asked by the President for your opinion or something, just tell him you have nothing whatever to say - and then after the meeting, in the corridor tell everyone how things should have been done.
6. Hold back your subscription as long as you possibly can so as to give the Secretary a bit of unnecessary work.
7. Start a whispering campaign about the finances.
8. Never subscribe to your magazine. This bucks up the Editor and enables him to make constant improvement.
9. Don't bother about getting new members - let someone else do it. After all, there are plenty of others who have time for that sort of thing.
10. In short, do nothing more than is absolutely necessary - but when other members roll up their sleeves and do the lot, howl like mad about how the organization is being run by the clique.
